“ RIVER-BANK PROTECTION ACT ”

NOTICE is hereby given that, under the provisions of section 15 of the “ River-bank Protection Act,” Statutes of British Columbia, 1951, chapter 70, the report of the engineer containing the general plans, specifications, and costs of the proposed protection works is required to be deposited in the Land Registry Office and registered as a first charge in favour of the Crown upon each lot or parcel of land as shown in the assessment roll relative to that parcel, it being provided therein that no fees shall be payable in respect of the registration under that section:

That where the owners discharge the liability owing to the Crown and receive a release therefrom, in order to clear the title from the charge referred to, it is necessary to make an application in the Land Registry Office for that purpose and to pay the appropriate Land Registry fees, there being nothing in the Act exempting the fees in respect of this procedure:

And that in the circumstances it is right and conducive to the public good that the strictness of the law with respect to the payment of the fees for the release of the charge in the Land Registry Office should be relaxed, and that accordingly the property-owners whose land is so charged should obtain the benefit of clearing the charge without the payment of the prescribed fee:

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has therefore been pleased to order that, pursuant to the provisions of section 44 (1) of the “ Revenue Act,” being chapter 291, “ Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948,” the fees payable under the Scale of Fees in the “ Land Registry Act ” on the application to register the release of the charge imposed by section 15 of the “ River-Bank Protection Act ” be remitted.
